

ADVOCATE | EDUCATE | RIDE

Bike Indianapolis wouldn't exist without members and their contributions. Your membership dollars go toward the strength and growth of Bike Indianapolis as we strive to create more bike riders thru advocacy, education, and riding.

You can join for as little as $1.

By contributing to Bike Indianapolis, you demonstrate that you care about the issues facing bike riders in our community and you want to make bicycling safe and fun for everyone in central Indiana. Bike Indianapolis will leverage your membership dollars to build a stronger bicycling community and engage in initiatives focused on infrastructure, education, and great destinations in Indianapolis. The bigger our membership, the more apparent our message and our needs as bike riders become, and the more likely those needs are to be met by our city governments.

Joining Bike Indianapolis is a great way to get involved. Here is a list of volunteer opportunities coming up. If you have talents or skills you want to offer to help, please contact us about it. After you've joined, please ask your friends to join Bike Indianapolis too. Ask your employer to become a corporate sponsor as well.
